Michigan Second in Intercollegiate Championships. Aided by Brilliant Work of carrels - Yale Third-Haskins Wins Mile in 4:20 3-5-Many Records Broken.

BOSTON, Mass., June 1 .- The Red and Blue of the University of Pennsylvania waved triumphant in the Harvard stadium here co-day, for the Quakers had won the cham-nienship point cup in the thirty-second annual track and field meet of the Intercol-legiate Association of Amateur Athletes of It was a day abundant in sensational features and record breaking performances, and as the programme neared its climax developed into a battle royal between the Michigan sturdily upheld the prestige Western brawn and muscle and it could not have been intrusted to a more aggressive aggregation than the Wolverines. However, luck favored Pennsylvania, and their final tally was 33 points. Six firsts contributed the bulk of this score, and more gold medsls went toward Philadelphia than any other quarter. Michigan made 29 points. Yale, with a poor team, was third with 23 ints, and Cornell, which had won for the Other colleges who earned points the fray were Princeton, 40; Syracuse, Harvard, 7; Swarthmore, 6; Dartmouth, 5;

The first final of the day which was pro-The first final of the day which was productive of new figures was the mile, and the nero of the event was Guy Haskins of Pennsylvania. His time was 4 minutes 20 3-5 econds, and it wipes out both the collegiate and intercollegiate mark of 4 minutes 23 2-5 econds by George W. Orton of Pennsylvania, pade in 1895.

and intercollegiate mark of 4 minutes 23 2-5 seconds by George W. Orton of Pennsylvania, made in 1845.

After the pistol had cracked it was a dingdong aftair between Haskins, Coe and Majoney of Michigan and Lewis of Cornell, but they were stepping it at a slashing gait. When the bell clinked for the last lap Haskins was in the van, and close on his heels was coe, with Lewis and Maloney keeping company in the order named. Thus they ran until the turn for the homestretch, when coe moved up a peg, and it looked for a moment as if he might nail the Quaker, but Haskins pegged away and won by two yards. Lewis was about four yards behind Coe, and Maloney was fourth by about a yard.

J. B. Taylor, the colored boy from Pennsylvania, maintained his reputation in the quarter mile and eclipsed the intercollegiate record of 49 1-5 seconds made by himself in 1904. His time was 48 4-5 seconds. In the race he had decidedly the worts of it ashedrew a position away on the outside. As they toredown the stretch and around the benk Taylor had to run on the extreme outside, but when he struck the straight Rogers of Cornell from Coholan of Vale, with drew away and won by about three yards from Coholan of Yale, with Rogers of Cornell good third and Atlee of Princeton a fair fourth.

New figures were in order again in the two miles, and Floyd R. Rowe of Michigan captured the honors in 9 minutes 34 4-5 seconds, brealing the former collegiate and intercollegiate record of 9 minutes 40 seconds made by W. E. Schutt of Cornell in 1903. Rowe had the race in hand from the start, and when the time came made his effort and won in decisive fashion.

time came made his effort and won in decisive fashion.

There were three new records in the field contests. In the high jumo Moffit of Pennsylvania cleared 6 feet 3½ inches, and this breaks the old intercollegiste mark by a quarter of an inch, made by J. D. Winsor of Pennsylvania in 1837. W. R. Dray of Yale vaulted it feet 11½ inches, and this breaks both the intercollegiate and collegiate records of il feet 10½ inches, made jointly by A. G. Grant of Harvard and T. M. Jackson of Cornell last year.

Krueger of Swarthmore sent the 16 pound shot a distance of 46 feet 5½ inches and this breaks the intercollegiate and collegiate record of 46 feet by Fred Beck of Yale in 1902. Garrels was second in this event, and had he not been interfered with by the semifinal heats of the 120 hurdles he would surely have won with new figures. As it was, one of his pure which were discrete, four transport of feet have described were discrete.

individual honors of the day easily belonged to Garrels by winning both hurdles and taking second place in the shot. He is a wonderful athlete and won a host of friends his quiet and unassuming manner of going about his business.

Haskins made a dual score, but it was a close shave for him in the half, as he only nosed home by a few inches, Cartmell's wins in the 100 yard and 220 yards helped Pennsylvania immensely. The day was fair but blustery and the attendance was poor for such a big event.

JERSEYMEN REVERSE THE RE-SULTS OF EARLIER MEETING.

Good Matches at Fox Hills for Vice-President's Cup-Handicap at Dunwoodie -Sullivan Wins Out President's Trophy at Haltusrol-East Jersey Teams

"Thirty-count 'em-thirty!" was the lineup for the second match of the season be-tween the teams of the Dyker Meadow Golf Club and the Englewood Golf Club yester-day, played at Englewood. The Jerseymen had out their best men, and, cheered by the bright eyes and applause of the feminine gallery, at the home green, they won by 19½ to 10½. The pair to halve their match were Knowlton, of the visitors, and Bollden. Last month the Dykerites beat the Jerseymen on the Fort Hamilton course and a third match may now be necessary. This was the case last year, when Dyker Meadow won the rubber at Garden City. The score follows:

The old course will be used at Lake Placid until July, when an eighteen hole course of 6,000 yards will be in play. Last fall ten members of the golf club, including J. K. Funk and Melvil Dewey, subscribed each $1,000 to enlarge the course, which now covers $16 acres, between the lake and the foot of ne mountain, a strip two miles long and tone-quarter mile wide. Aleck H. Findlay of Boston planned the changes.

A. G. Lockwood, who has returned in good season to defend his title, will be opposed by a sturdy set of young players in the Massachusetts amateur championship on June 17-20 at the Woodland Golf Club. Thirty-two will qualify in the eighteen hole opening round, and except the final the match play will be at thirty-six holes. The Windeler shield will be awarded to the club team of five making the best score in the qualifying round. The new book of the Massachusetts Golf Association reveals a membership of orty-four clubs, representing over 3,000 players.

Finishes were close in the monthly handicap for June at the Richmond County Country Club yesterday. Two cups were won outright, R. F. Welton taking the Class A trophy, with 87, 5-82, and S. C. Richmond, 107, 30-77, and E. J. Shriver, 97, 20-77, tieing in Class B. According to the club rule the first four in each class qualified for the cup presented by a member at match play. S. L. Davis was the donor of the June cup and qualified, but he withdrew as the host, which let in L. H. Thomas. The draw for the first round and handicaps of the Davis cup eight is Brunier, S. and Williams, 2; Morrow, 18. and Harrison, 14; Shriver, 15, and Welton, 4; Richmond, 22, and Thomas, 2. Selling so fast we can hardly keep up with the demand. Don't delay if you want one this season. This famous car has caught the fancy of the hardheaded business and professional man, and in a short while, from the demand from this quarter, we will not be able to guarantee delivery. Light, limber and tough, the Ford Four Cyclinder Runabout has won its way to popular favor by its small cost of upkeep and its sterling and consistent performance in its every day work. Over 900 in New York and vicinity alone. Ask one of the owners,
